

Chemical weapons in the Great War

Tom Simoens
Senior Captain
Tom.simoens@mil.be
Brussels
07 Dec 2015

1. Who initiated chemical warfare?

First use of...	non-lethal toxic agents	lethal toxic agents
By France	August 1914	February 1916
By the German Empire	October 1914	April 1915
By Great Britain		September 1915

Fritz Haber

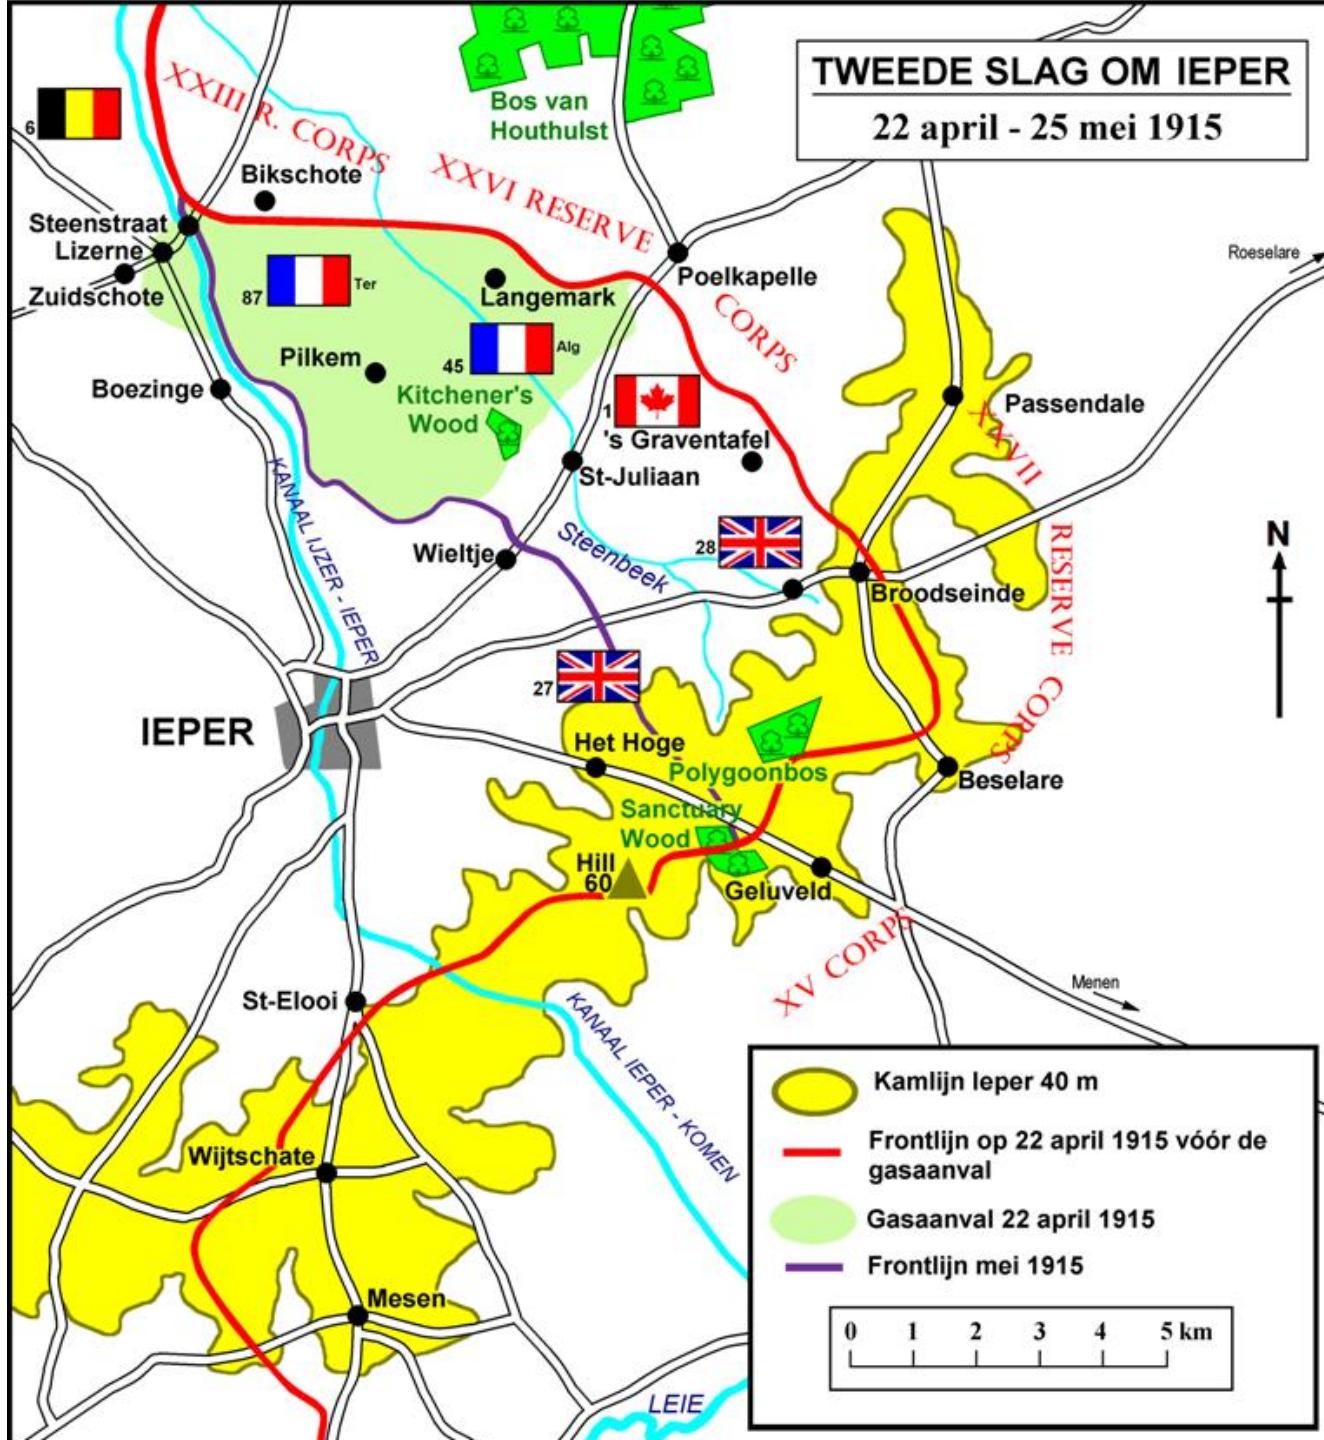

Erich von Falkenhayn

Bundesarchiv, Bild 183-R00788
Foto: o. Ang., 1915 ca.

Gas cloud

2. How did chemical warfare develop during the war ?

First trend:
arms race and battlefield competition

(c) Getty Images | Published in AweImages.com

1. Improving the agents

2. Improving the delivery systems

Livens projectors

Gaswerfer

3. Quantitative improvement

Thousands of tons (N=112,6)

Thousands of tons (N=111,9)

4. Tactical improvement

Georg Bruchmüller

Green cross – Yellow cross – Blue cross

Second trend:
copy each other

Conclusion

Si dans l'imaginaire collectif la guerre des gaz est restée le symbole le plus fort de l'horreur du conflit,

- ses conséquences stratégiques ont été pratiquement nulles,
- ses conséquences tactiques limitées,
- ses conséquences humaines plus faibles que l'on ne l'a cru longtemps.

(G.-H. Soutou)