

Brussels, 14 September 2022

Dear Madam,
Dear Sir,

I'm pleased to invite you to attend a Seminar organized in the English language by the Belgian Group of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War. The topic of this seminar will be:

Targeting under International Humanitarian Law

This meeting will take place on 10 November 2022 at the Prince Albert Club¹ in Brussels (20, Rue des Petits Carmes) in accordance with the enclosed program. It will include an interactive group exercise.

This event is open to members of the Belgian Group of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War, as well as to academics, practitioners and students active in the field of international humanitarian law. Please find enclosed the relevant application form.

As the number of available places is limited, we will apply the 'first comes first meals principle' while giving priority to members of the Belgian Group of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War until 10 October 2022. Non-members of the Belgian Group who wish to attend the Seminar will receive news as of 11 October 2022 on whether or not their application is accepted. Applications that reach us after 4 November 2022 will in principle not be accepted.

We look forward to welcoming participants in Brussels on the occasion of our fifth one-day meeting of the year 2022.

Yours sincerely

Ludwig VAN DER VEKEN
President
